

Nashville Chief-Gazette

Serving the News that Helps your Daily Lives

Seventy Five Cents

Tanks Roll into Cairo, Egypt

Kitty O'Neil

At least four tanks and several armored personnel carriers (APC) have been deployed outside the presidential palace in Cairo, Egypt following clashes between supporters and opponents of president Mohamed Morsi where as many as six people were killed. More than 700 others have been reported injured.

Opponents of Morsi began camping outside the palace on Tuesday night after hundreds of thousands protested new presidential decrees in Tahrir Square. On Wednesday, supporters of Morsi stormed the encampment and tore down tents belonging to opponents and attacked them. Some threw rocks at them while others threw molotov cocktails, forcing opponents to retreat. Clashes continued into the early morning hours before subsiding.

"I've seen Molotov cocktails, people armed with iron bars and rocks, some people even pulling branches off of trees in terms of trying to find some kind of weapon to fight with", said Elizabeth Arrott, a reporter with Voice of America who was at the palace when clashes were taking place. Several journalists were also reported attacked in the clashes. People on each side have blamed the other for starting the violence.

Renault Vaughn, a French observer, noted that bizarre acts of violence occurred on both sides, with the level of violence rising to dismemberment and mutilation of corpses. "Looting has been light but targeted, with reports of antiquities being sought out, either as valuable relics or items to be destroyed because they are heretical to Islamic traditions. It is a terrible loss of history either way."

Protests both in support of and opposing Morsi broke out around Egypt after he enacted new powers on November 22 that include making his decisions free from judicial oversight.

Governor Haslam announces Field "Will be made New"

Bill Haslam speaking at Monday's joint state and city government press conference. Tap here for XP.

'Reality' show seeks extras

Tom Kane

Hayseeds, the new reality television spin-off of Honey Boo Boo being shot west of Nashville, is seeking locals to participate in episodes being filmed starting early next year. Actors would be paid a minor stipend plus meals and be involved in various family activities that showcase the two local families that are the focus of the show.

Interested applicants would ideally be relatives, including distant relatives, of either the Garvers or the Whites. Both families have been living in the Nashville area for many generations, and the Garvers are distantly related to the Georgia based Honey Boo Boo family. Both families are renowned for their multi-generational feud.

Determination to rebuild LP Field

Ezra Stone

Governor Bill Haslam held a press conference Monday vowing that the cleanup and restoration of LP Field would be a high priority. City officials in attendance vowed to support his efforts. Local religious groups raised significant funds and are active in efforts to replace dead grass and trees at the site.

Earlier immediate efforts were stymied by soil damage apparently due to minerals in the meteor strike last month.

"When we initially laid in new sod, it quickly died. We have dug up the underlying soil of the field, fertilized the lower layer, laid in new topsoil and finally laid a replacement layer of sod. So far, it appears to have been successful", related chief grounds-keeper Ben Zajac.

NASHVILLE UNVEILED - REQUIEM

STREET RUMORS

These are loose rumors that have popped up between the last game and now. Your Storyteller is not to be trusted: some rumors listed here may be false or dead ends. Suggested rolls for downtime actions are given following some rumors, but feel free to use anything you want. What you roll determines the type of information, and the number of successes determines the amount of information.

Don't forget to read the newspaper for the PUBLIC news to look into!

The Hipster Killer is loose! Somebody is killing trend-setters and the cool people!

There's a cure for Jump addiction. But it's not available in clinics. If you know the right people, they can help.

Some kind of vicious beasts have infested the greenways along the river, down to Cumberland Park and Thermal Plant Park. Probably dogs, from the bite marks. A few strange corpses of homeless and bicyclists have been found washed up downriver, and several bicyclists are now avoiding the area after having been scared off.

KINDRED RUMORS

These are loose rumors that have popped up between the last game and now. Your Storyteller is not to be trusted: some rumors listed here may be false or dead ends. Suggested rolls for downtime actions are given following some rumors, but feel free to use anything you want. What you roll determines the type of information, and the number of successes determines the amount of information.

Don't forget to read the newspaper for the PUBLIC news to look into!

Many rumors are now handed to players, based on their connections. Find them in character!

Now that Vampire Killer, Werewolf Killer and Zombie Killer bullets have appeared in local gun stores, they are selling like hotcakes. Boxes of the shells come with free "World War Z" targets, the best selling of which are the Brad Pitt ones.

There is a power vacuum open, and nobody seems to see it. While there are those who spend the Danse Macabre in certain mortal circles, none in our society controls it.

The Carthians are up to something. Lots of banner waving and meetings. They march into Elysium and mutter in each other's ears.

Ghouls plague the city in larger numbers than are reasonable.

Dead bodies continue to appear around town, more and more subtle, as if those involved are getting better at hunting. They also seem to be piling up in the most popular hunting grounds.

You know that loner Crone, Billy Snopes? He's getting ready to leave town, claiming things are falling apart and something about falcons and birth.

FEEDING RESISTANCE: 4

RECENTLY...

---

Last Game – And hell shall follow after: a chunk of the moon hit the city. Frantic action preserved the veneer of civilization, but something broke the city – maybe the world – around LP Field, and the full ramifications have yet to be determined.

Previously – While looking for answers, we spoke to the heathen gods of the Circle of the Crone. Alas, we also found that the Parthenon is claimed by another powerful group.

Previously – Werewolves, Spirits and Towers, oh my! Hunters were hunted, and prophecies investigated.

Previously – Mortals who are addicted to vitae are attracting hunters cashing in on their needs. In addition, gourmet clients have found that the Kindred of the city are quite the trendy cuisine.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

---

Holiday schedule:

Dec 15 – Garou

Dec 22 – No game (Christmas)

Dec 29 – No game (New Year)

Jan 5 – Requiem 2013

---

Storyteller: Evan Edwards

evan@cheshirehall.net

@JWokky

(814) 889-8845

---

NashvilleUnveiled.com

---