Foodies Seeking New Pleasures

Chastity Arbmosal

The recently booming foodie scene may be on the decline with members of the population looking for the 'next big thing.' According to late night diner Alice La Grange, "the food is missing that, like, little something extra it used to have. I don't know, it's like not as good or something, you know?"

One time hot spot Benelli Bistro, known for it's legendary red sauce and Catalina dressing, has languished under the supervision of current manager Vincenzo. "My pork chop taco was a good idea, I thought," he laments, "but people had problems with the bone. I'm thinking of adding a paella spaghetti won ton to the menu. Fusion food is still a thing, right?"

Some Nashville staples are still thriving. Now able to convene at local parks, the food truck industry is going strong as ever. The farmers market is also bustling with the recent change in the weather. Said Bubba Robertson, "I've got some great produce form a new supplier. This is going to be a good season. Come on down and check us out!"

Two Pileups kill dozens, including three Tennesseans

During unseasonal fog, several multivehicle accidents occurred on the Blue Grass Parkway in Kentucky. Two of the chain collisions caused several deaths, including three individuals in a minivan from Nashville.

Police Announce Major Drug Bust

Trish Scrober

Earlier this week, Police Chief Lucas Patterson made a press release reporting that one of the largest problem drugs in Nashville had finally be busted.

"The problem Ruby presented is now gone, though its symptoms are still present around the city", Patterson stated to reporters in a public interview. "At one time, Ruby was a cause of a lot of disturbances that put the lives and safety of Nashville citizens in danger, and now that the source has been eliminated, the proper cleanup can begin."

Police response times have improved thanks to the fact that substantial law enforcement resources have been freed from the Ruby investigation. Patterson answered questions, but was unable to give insight into the ongoing investigations or plans for cleanup.

Second Shocking Spree Killing

Jerry White

For the third night in a row, a series of related killings occurred off of Church Street. In the first, the bodies of five young men attending a function at Play were found in an alleyway, with crudely drawn demonic symbols. Police were investigating it as a hate crime of opportunity when a friend of theirs, who is now suspected to have witnessed the event, was found hanging upside down in a church tower, his throat slit. Since the death occurred the following night, police reclassified the crime as a planned assault.

Last night, four men and one woman working late at Used Pallet Place, north of Church street, were found dead, their heads burned over pallet fires. All of the deceased were employees, and appear to have been killed by the same person or persons responsible for the earlier spree.

These are loose rumors that have popped up between the last game and now. Your Storyteller is not to be trusted: some rumors listed here may be false or dead ends. Suggested rolls for downtime actions are given following some rumors, but feel free to use anything you want. What you roll determines the type of information, and the number of successes determines the amount of information.

Those military guys don't seem to be arresting anybody, but violence downtown seems to be dropping. (Wits+Investigation)

Justin Beiber is in town! (Beiber Fever-Wits)

The scoop on Hayseeds is out, since some people saw a preview. They act like the Nashville area is like True Blood, at least for part of the woogeyness. (Presence+Socialize)

Bad stuff is going down at the Exit-In tonight. (Presence+Socialize)

Downtown is safe. That whole Facebook group against the fascist law enforcement was stupid. This group makes it safe to drink downtown! Woo! (Wits+Politics)

No rumor cards this week

With everybody feeling safe downtown, the Rack is full of easy prey. These military guys are great when it comes to making the kine placid. (Manipulation+Socialize, Composure+Empathy, Dexterity+Stealth)

Lancea have some kind of special thing on Easter. Or so I think I remember from before I took the last big nap. (Intelligence+Occult)

There is a power vacuum open, and nobody seems to see it. While there are those who spend the Danse Macabre in certain mortal circles, none in our society controls it. (Intelligence+Politics)

Now that Vampire Killer, Werewolf Killer and Zombie Killer bullets have appeared in local gun stores, they are selling like hotcakes. Boxes of the shells come with free "Joe Biden" posters. They aren't selling well with the bullet crowd, but shotgun enthusiasts love them. (Wits+Investigation)

Ghouls! Okay, not so many any more. Now that their supply of Ruby has dried up, they are desperate, however. (Presence+Socialize/Streetwise to obtain a ghoul)

FEEDING RESISTANCE: 1

Do a hunting draw, subtract the above from your pool. Success: start full. Failure: start down four or twice your blood potency, whichever is larger. You may run a feeding scene to "top off".

RECENTLY...

Last Game – Travels outside the city... you'll have to corner somebody who went to find out what happened.

Previously – The whole city banded together to put an end to Ruby and the kindred who were creating it. Strange visitors to Elysium and memory gaps followed.

Previously – Contact was made with the military contractors. They are certainly neither vampires nor normal humans. A early morning visit to the mayor seemed in order.

Previously – Okay, seriously... the city fought Ents and set the Cumberland ablaze. However, whoever it was that was making the vitae produce seems to be dead, along with the dogbeasts. What's next? Nukes for Neonates?

Previously – The city decided that, although Friday was a good day to get down, that Saturday was even better. And to have shootouts in downtown Nashville. Yee haw!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Got hammered with work this week, no XP totals tonight, for which I am very sorry. I'll do them early this coming week to make sure they are done well before next game.
