

Nashville Chief-Gazette

Serving the News that Helps your Daily Lives

Morning Edition

Eighty Five Cents

Another child goes missing

Brett Dalton

Another neighborhood is left devastated after a local child goes missing. A police officer who wishes to remain anonymous states that there has been very little evidence to work with.

“It’s like these kids are vanishing into thin air.”

As with the abduction of Chloe Bennet the child was taken while waiting for the school bus. Police are again seeking the community’s help in tracking down the abductor and returning these children to their families.

Housing project seeks additional funding

Elizabeth Henstridge

The non-profit organization seeking to build additional low-income housing in the city is seeking private funding to aid in their effort.

“While the city has graciously donated a large quantity of land and we have ample volunteer labor to begin construction our budget is being stretched to its limit on construction materials. We are trying to make our city a better place and hope that those who share our vision will assist us in this endeavor”

Charity auctions and dinners are currently being planned. Any donations of money or goods for the auction need to be delivered to 1906 Dickerson Rd. Checks should be made payable to the John Donelson society.

Construction resumes on damaged public library

Iain De Caestecker

After the shocking act of vandalism that damaged the library in June funds have been approved to resume construction and remodeling efforts on the new East Nashville library. Director Linda Summers stated at a press conference earlier this week “We cannot allow such acts of vandalism to prevent us from doing a greater good for our city. We intend to allocate as much money as it takes to complete this project and open this library”

City planning representatives state that the construction is planned to begin at the start of November and is anticipated to continue into next year.

Editorial: The good city

Jack Bean

Evil things sometimes get wrapped in good packages. The best poisons get delivered as medicines. This city is seeing a period of growth and prosperity, but that don't mean all of it is good.

Take that new housing project for example. Being homeless in this city ain't no easy thing to do – people go missing and their bodies pop-up in the Cumberland. Building them new homes should be a good thing. I'm just wondering who this John Donelson society is and why they're so interested all of a sudden.

Same for the libraries. It's clear that the people of East Nashville ain't too happy about it so why rebuild it?

NASHVILLE UNVEILED - MAGE

STREET RUMORS

These are loose rumors that have popped up between the last game and now. Your Storyteller is not to be trusted: some rumors listed here may be false or dead ends. Suggested rolls for downtime actions are given following some rumors, but feel free to use anything you want. What you roll determines the type of information, and the number of successes determines the amount of information.

Don't forget to read the newspaper for the PUBLIC news to look into!

I saw the girl disappear – I watched her just vanish without a trace.

That new housing project can't come soon enough. Maybe we'll be able to get all of the trash together on Dickerson Road?

I can't wait for the new library to open up! I've heard they have a children's room planned and will be offering after school programs for the local kids.

MAGE RUMORS

These are loose rumors that have popped up between the last game and now. Your Storyteller is not to be trusted: some rumors listed here may be false or dead ends. Suggested rolls for downtime actions are given following some rumors, but feel free to use anything you want. What you roll determines the type of information, and the number of successes determines the amount of information.

Don't forget to read the newspaper for the PUBLIC news to look into!

Something weird has been happening to some of the lines in the city. On the plus side the city is getting more lovey-dovey.

The Arrows are getting antsy – they seem to think the Seers are going to strike back.

Mynd Phreak has been spending a bit of time with the new guy. Looks like the Council's already got their hooks in him.

Jack needs to be careful. I get that being an apostate that he can do things, but he's really pushing some boundaries. Publishing in a public newspaper? What else could he be up to?

Current Consilium

Hierarch: Mynd Phreak (FC, Ma)

Curator Jade Bodhisattva (M, Mo)

Epopt Taqiyya (G, A)

Lictor Chisholm (SL, T)

Sage Caged Lightning (AA, O)

RECENTLY...

The city now has two fewer Abyssal entities in it thanks to a cross-cabal effort. Where do they keep coming from?

Previously...

Father Bonnke paid the city's mages a visit and was put to the sword.

Previously...

A multi-cabal effort lead to the end of the strange happenings along the Cumberland River and resulted in a lost cabal of mages being brought back into modern society.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Venue opens for Mage at 1:00PM with Sign-ins starting at venue open and hard RP starting as soon as sheets are out. The game will hard stop at 4:30 PM due to Vampire's start time.

Reminder: If you have a back story for your character please email it to me as soon as possible. Bonus XP is given for costuming and back stories.

Storyteller: Corey Davidson
mage@nashvilleunveiled.com

@Kenhito

615-973-0874

NashvilleUnveiled.com

