

Nashville Chief-Gazette

Serving the News that Helps your Daily Lives

Ninety Cents

New Construction in SoBro Halted

Tom Chandler

The Diner, a major new complex at the corner of Demonbreun Street and Third Avenue South, has received a stop work order after their demolition affected more than had been agreed to during negotiations with Metro Planning Department prior to the beginning of construction.

METROPOLITAN GOVERNMENT OF NASHVILLE & DAVIDSON COUNTY

STOP WORK ORDER

LOCATION: 200 3rd Ave. South

NOTICE

To The Owner or Contractor:

Pursuant to the provisions of the Metropolitan Building, Electrical, Gas, Mechanical, Plumbing and Zoning Codes, you are hereby notified to cease work on this job. Work may be resumed upon compliance with the following requirements.

Approval of a new final site plan that complies with the provisions of the Downtown Code and Rutledge Hill Redevelopment District

The purpose of these provisions is to secure conformance to all codes of the Metropolitan Government.

BY ORDER OF THE
 DIRECTOR Zoning Administrator
 M.C.L. 17.40.590 et seq.
 Department of Codes & Building Safety

DATE 6-27-14 BY Bill HERBERT
 PHONE: 862-6608 ZONING PERMITTING ADMINISTRATOR

The posting of this order may be appealed to the "Metropolitan Board of Zoning Code Appeals". To appeal the posting of this order, contact the Department of Codes Administration, 800 Second Avenue South, Nashville, TN (615) 862-6500.

"UNAUTHORIZED REMOVAL OF THIS ORDER IS A VIOLATION OF THE METROPOLITAN CODE OF LAWS AND IS SUBJECT TO A FINE"

City officials noted that they were waiting on a response from Avenue Diner, LLC, which includes the owners of Tootsies Orchid Lounge and Rippy's. The new building will host twenty four hour, seven day a week breakfast fare, plus multiple stories worth of bars expected to appeal to downtown patrons.

Tonight's Picks

- Music: Blood Ceremony / The Rutledge
- Cheap: Guard Dog Training / East Park
- Odd: Toast Days / Marathon M Works

Vampire suspected to be living in local woods

Believed to be a released exotic pet, a rare vampire squirrel has been spotted in Bells Bend Park. The squirrel, native to Borneo, is notable for having the world's fluffiest tail.

Greenbriar Cancels Famous Festival

Rachel Scott

The annual Turning of the Pig celebration and fundraiser was canceled this year at the very last minute. Barbecues had already started roasting pigs on spits Thursday when officials declared a health emergency and shut down the festival.

The event, which draws hundreds for the July 4th open air food and entertainment from all over Tennessee, is the first to be canceled in the history of the event.

Local officials declined to give specifics regarding the reason for the decision, merely noting that there were public health issues. Rumors of a scuffle requiring law enforcement that may have been related have not been confirmed by the Greenbriar Police Department, although Louise Martin Memorial Park has been closed and is being patrolled by officers.

Responding in Solidarity Grows

Mike Slattery

The local watchdog group Friends Engaging Neighbors, Responding in Solidarity has received a donation of space at the Gossett Building on Church Street. The building was purchased in February for $4 million by Adam Industries, LLC.

The group plans to use the space to organize as a cutting edge neighborhood watch. In recent weeks, the group was criticized for alleged invasions of privacy.

NASHVILLE UNVEILED: BLOOD & SMOKE

STREET RUMORS

These are loose rumors that have popped up between the last game and now. Your Storyteller is not to be trusted: some rumors listed here may be false or dead ends. Suggested rolls for downtime actions are given following some rumors, but feel free to use anything you want. What you roll determines the type of information, and the number of successes determines the amount of information.

Don't forget to read the newspaper for the PUBLIC news to look into!

Some drunk driver ran their car into a building at the Ravenwood Country Club.

Hayseeds continues to cause protests. It looks like the local conspiracy minded bible thumpers have added it to their regular set of "things we are outraged about", like D&D and Obamacare. (Presence+Socialize, Intelligence+Computer)

Did you hear about the United Christ Church? Supposedly they found that some of the members had found some kind of fifth gospel and were trading it around. Pastor Neil started to shut it down, but then he read it and has been meeting with them.

There are still problems up in Hermitage, but they seem to have stabilized for now. Nobody wants to call in any authorities... they just all feel... I don't know... uneasy.

KINDRED RUMORS

These are loose rumors that have popped up between the last game and now. Your Storyteller is not to be trusted: some rumors listed here may be false or dead ends. Suggested rolls for downtime actions are given following some rumors, but feel free to use anything you want. What you roll determines the type of information, and the number of successes determines the amount of information.

Don't forget to read the newspaper for the PUBLIC news to look into!

Does anybody know how to create Gargoyles? I'm looking to learn... but I hear you need somebody to teach you that shit.

I hear somebody was shit talking favors. Hell, that's half of what keeps most kindred from being at each other's throats. If somebody is not willing to play ball with others, fuck them.

Some of the Mekhet have issues with the Ordo. Something about past agreements. I hear the Ordo met recently, and there's going to be a reckoning soon.

Swine is still alive. Hunh. I did not see that one coming.

The Carthians are pissed at one of the seneschals. Apparently one of them tried to crash a private meeting. It is probably Paulene: she's good at staying invisible.

PREVIOUSLY...

2014-06-21: Under the Surface

See the sign on the door!

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Repeating Last Announcement:

Please come in through the kitchen door, ideally between 4:30 and 5pm. Drop off bags or anything on the OOC table (the kitchen table next to the sign-in table), then sign in and grab your character packet. Run a feeding draw with Chris and walk into the door he tells you to. That puts you either in game, or ready for the ST.

If you arrive late and we've already run through everybody, check in with Evan or Chris. If you know you are going to be getting there late, just file down-times in email,

This also means that everyone who is in the front room at 5pm is in full character; everybody is roleplaying. That way, you won't have to wonder if somebody is standing around waiting for food, or to run a scene, or plotting to take down a Primogen. Everybody in the front room after 5pm are all in character and playing. Jump in and begin play, collecting information from people, spreading false rumors, and working for boons.

1) Downtimes and purchases are now encouraged to be emailed in. Send them by 7am on the Saturday of game to evan@nashvilleunveiled.com

2) To foster that, I'll be putting the next edition of the Chief Gazette and Rumor page up on the Tuesday preceding game. See <http://chief-gazette.com/>

If you succeed at an aspiration, make sure that a staff member notes it, so you get a beat. In fact, make sure all beats are recorded on your Game Log.

Storyteller: Evan Edwards

evan@cheshirehall.net

@JWokky

(814) 889-8845

NashvilleUnveiled.com

FEEDING RESISTANCE: 5

Do a hunting draw, subtract the above from your pool. Success: start full. Failure: start down five or twice your blood potency, whichever is larger. You may run a feeding scene to "top off".

If you are unaligned, add three to the above.