New Club Adds to Nashville Nights

Karl Mogul

April marked the opening of a new hotspot for creatures of the night in Nashville. Daeva's is equal parts cabaret and rave, and already the place to see and be seen.

Located where the old dive "Showgirls" was once located, Daevas is bringing some old world class to the outskirts of downtown. Red velvet and fine crystal blend seamlessly with the glow sticks and house music to create a truly unique ambiance.

The opening night was a smash success. The invite only crowd arrived first, seemingly requiring a password to enter. The burly guard and speakeasy vibe only heightened the entertainment factor. As the evening progressed, word spread and Daeva's became the after-party to be at.

The VIP lounge is just to die for.

DJ Downplays Accused Rapist

Don Ramone

At a recent fundraiser, DJ Latch spoke about the still out of the public eye Vex Vandal. His statement raised eyebrows.

"Honestly, this was all Vex's idea really, though he didn't want his name involved since the... "Allegations" put against him might take away from the issues these concerts are trying to help. He wants the attention on the issues, not on him."

Soil Stolen from local Landmark Park

Empty ground at Fort Negley is evidence of a crime – the site held a pile of dirt that was full of fossils to be searched by the public.

A Dirty Crime

Brent Nash

An in odd twist of events, a pile of dirt has been stolen from a local site at Fort Negley. This soil has been a source of fossils in recent archaeological studies.

"The fossils are of little monetary value," laments Dr. Emily Summers. "Anybody trying to sell them on the black market will be sorely disappointed. We are trying to construct an understanding of what life was like in Nashville millions of years ago. We can offer very little in reward but our gratitude."

To properly understand the historical significance of fossils and artifacts, it is important to preserve the integrity of the dig site. Thieves, vandals, and other miscreants have taken an incalculable toll on our understanding of those that came before us be contaminating dig sites for what the thin will be an easy buck.

Mother's Day

Mike Neustrom

It is a very special and powerful thing to be a mother. They bring life into this world. They love with a sacred strength.

This weekend is Mother's Day, a time to honor our mothers. While some decry this as a "Hallmark Holiday," it is always pleasant to have a reason to call and connect with our mothers and grandmothers.

Local flower shops are in full bloom, offering specials on white daisies and pink roses. Local restaurants are offering Sunday brunch, so be sure to treat that special mother in your life to a meal to remember.

STREET RUMORS

These are loose rumors that have popped up between the last game and now. Your Storyteller is not to be trusted: some rumors listed here may be false or dead ends. Suggested rolls for downtime actions are given following some rumors, but feel free to use anything you want. What you roll determines the type of information, and the number of successes determines the amount of information.

Don't forget to read the newspaper for the PUBLIC news to look into!

Did you see the stuff airing out of East Nashville on channel 4? Hipsters are getting old TVs with rabbit ears to watch. It's a cult phenomena!

The Cincinnati office of the FBI has sent a representative to Nashville. That seems odd. I wonder why they would be here rather than somebody from Washington DC?

Fuck Bill Cosby. Fuck Vex Vandal. Fuck Gary Glitter. Assholes.

While the strange numbers continue to appear around town, there's nobody translating them any longer. It would appear that interest has dried up.

I'll bet whoever was killing animals is behind the slaughter on at the fairgrounds. Those horrible acts stopped right when the murders happened.

KINDRED RUMORS

These are loose rumors that have popped up between the last game and now. Your Storyteller is not to be trusted: some rumors listed here may be false or dead ends. Suggested rolls for downtime actions are given following some rumors, but feel free to use anything you want. What you roll determines the type of information, and the number of successes determines the amount of information.

Don't forget to read the newspaper for the PUBLIC news to look into!

Carthians are running around breaking the traditions and the Invictus seem powerless to stop them. How are these two groups suppose to be the examples of society?

Who was responsible for stopping the construction of the diner? And why?

What the heck was that thing that accompanied the team to the fairgrounds? The one with the mouth sewn closed?

Who fixed the basement, I wonder?

With lots of changes, I wonder if anybody is going to claim themselves as Regent over any thing or place?

The smell of ants has leveled off in the Cacophony.

Did Cyrus turn into an angel?

I wonder what a Strix taking over a kindred looks like? How can you tell? Can you even tell if you're the one being controlled?

The FBI in the news has made several kindred question where Jack Cade went, and what Homeland Security is doing in town these days.

PREVIOUSLY...

Chapter 33, Game 2

In the aftermath of Cyrus's transformation, the city looked into the strange numbers that plague the city, and backroom deals occurred at the premiere opening night of the exclusive club, Daevas. Covenants realigned as political considerations were made along clan lines. Finally, a man in a red sports car had adventures with Metro PD, causing an expanding fracas resulting in many favors being owed.

Chapter 33, Game 1

Cyrus went apeshit and turned into a falcon. Or something. Seriously, what the hell happened, and why were there humans all over Elysium? And a huge hole in the basement?

Chapter 32: Summer in the City

The previous chapter leaves our characters with a new Prince, at least two new enemies, and a new problem arising out of a solution.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Everybody is sending in emailed downtimes, which is great. However, many are still sending them in on Friday and Saturday (of game!). As I file the emails, I am missing questions, so I will likely have to set a cut off date at Thursday at 5pm.

THEY HAVE RETURNED.
